Model Ts to Mustangs Classic Car Show Drives into Stamford May 5

4th annual show returns to Stamford Museum & Nature Center

(Stamford, Connecticut—April 2007) ... The Stamford Museum & Nature Center is gearing up for its 4th annual Model Ts to Mustangs antique and classic car show presented by Carriage House Motor Cars, Ltd., of Greenwich and co-sponsored by Karl Chevrolet Hummer of New Canaan Saturday, May 5, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The show features more than 50 classic beauties built between 1900 and 1979. Early entries include a 1939 Cadillac Fleetwood once owned by actress Greer Garson, which returns this year after a complete refurbishing, as well as a 1954 Buick Roadmaster Convertible, a 1954 Chevrolet Corvette and a 1964 Buick Riviera.

“Fairfield and Westchester counties are home to some of the country’s most famous car collections. Model Ts to Mustangs offers an excellent chance for the public to see these collections that are often not open to the public,” said the museum’s Curator of Collections Rosa Portell, “and it allows us to reach a different part of our audience.”

The show will be judged and awards – including a “People’s Choice” award – will be presented in several categories. The awards ceremony will be held at 2:45 p.m. Participants may also opt not to have their cars judged if they wish.

As in prior years the show will be co-curated by David Greenberg of Stamford. Proceeds from Model Ts to Mustangs benefit the museum’s art education programs and gallery initiatives.

“We’re now in our fourth year, and each year the show has been better and better,” Greenberg said. “There’s been great and growing participation from both car owners and the public. Even the venue has improved. We started in the lower parking lot, moved to the upper parking lot and now fill the meadow. We have a lot of repeat exhibitors showing different cars from their collections. The show has developed an excellent following.”

Admission for the public is included in the Stamford Museum & Nature Center’s entrance fee (Adults $8; Children ages 4-14, $4; seniors 65+, $6; Children 3 and under, free).

For more information, visit our new Web site at www.stamfordmuseum.org or call 203-322-1646. To find out whether the show has been postponed or cancelled due to inclement weather, call 203-322-1646.
