Volunteer Opportunities

Please check the volunteer opportunities that interest you:

Family Festivals and Special Events: Assist with pre-event preparation and/or staffing special events and fundraisers

Maple Sugar Sunday (March)

Annual Wine Tasting (June)

Spring on the Farm (May)

Harvest Festival (October)

Model T's to Mustangs (May)

Tea Parties (dates vary)

Administrative

Assist with mailings and other office work.

Museum Ambassadors

The "Museum Ambassadors" are our trained gallery volunteers. Museum Ambassadors serve as representatives of our institution and as a valuable resource for our visitors. Training classes and an on-the-job training period are required.

Junior Curators

Upon the successful completion of the Junior Curator Class, participants aged 10 – 14 years are eligible to become volunteer Junior Curators on the Heckscher Farm, and may volunteer up to three times per week. Fees apply.

Farm

Volunteers over age 14 will train with farm staff in all aspects of animal care and farm maintenance. A regular weekly time commitment is required.

General Services

Maintenance of SM&NC buildings & grounds, light carpentry, pruning, clean-up, and other indoor/outdoor maintenance.

Computer

Volunteers with computer skills are needed to help with data entry and other projects
